Viking drysuits are available in a wide range of sizes and specifications. In this price list, we have set out for each style , a basic suit which you can configure to include your own choice of seals , hoods , valves , pockets , cuff rings , yokes etc. We have also specified some of the most popular suit combinations in order to offer a quick guide to complete suit prices.

Each suit is identified by a family number consisting of 10 digits as shown in this price list
 The previously used 15 digit article number is no longer applicable
 A full description will be supplied on each order acknowledgement
 This will include each and every component that is fitted to each suit, and will identify placement of components such as valves , and accessories such as pockets if specified.

CERTIFICATIONS

All Viking dry suits have been certified according to the relevant European standards which have been in force since 2005. When purchasing a drysuit , you are able to check whether a suit has been certified by checking the warning label inside which should identify the notified body which will have been responsible for carrying out these independent tests.
 Viking dry suits are certified as follows:
